This Sunday at CRBC ...

There are some texts that do not require a fancy illustration to apply it to your life. Matthew 26:30-56 is there to show us the magnitude of what Jesus did for us, and shows us how to respond to it. This Sunday, Palm Sunday, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave looks at Jesus in the garden before he goes to the cross.

We will also observe the Lord's Supper during this service. Please prepare your hearts and minds as we remember what Christ has done for us.

Join us at 11AM this Sunday at CRBC or on YouTube.

Unstoppable Annie Armstrong

Annie Walker Armstrong was born on July 11, 1850, in Baltimore at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet, her devotion to Christ was paramount and Annie led a life of service and leadership. She organized women to pray, to give, and to meet the many needs around them. She also challenged pastors and churches to action and rallied vital support for missionaries.

The following are just some of her many accomplishments:

Annie.....

- ◆ was never married but she loved children and taught Sunday School to children from toddlers to age 12 for over 50 years.
- ◆ volunteered at a shelter for poor children and worked to find creative ways to teach children about missionaries and to raise missional support; she also reached out to those with addictions.
- ◆ was instrumental in the founding of the Woman's Missionary Union (WMU) and served as their first executive.
- ◆ refused a salary and traveled extensively at her own expense on behalf of the WMU.
- ◆ had a way with words and wrote over 18,000 letters in one year seeking support for missions.
- ◆ raised awareness and support for missionaries to serve Italian and Jewish immigrants.
- ◆ gained support for the first black, female missionaries.
- ◆ advocated for Native Americans and impoverished mountain people.
- ◆ secured funds to relieve China missionary, Lottie Moon, who had served for 11 years without a furlough.
- ◆ became known nationally as a Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires millions today.

Offering envelopes for our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering will be available this Sunday and offerings will be accepted anytime during the month of April. If using a check, please mark Easter Offering on the memo line. Let's be "unstoppable" with our support.
