This Sunday at CRBC ...

How can we share our faith in a humble and clear way even when people may be hostile towards us? Or another way to ask the question is... how can we be humble in the way that we talk to others with our testimony? As CRBC Pastor Danny Estave discusses Acts 22-23, we will see Paul's heart for those who are hostile towards him, as well as several truths about God to hold on to during those difficult conversations.

Join us at 11AM this Sunday, at CRBC or on YouTube.

Food and Supply Drive Begins This Sunday

We begin our annual Food and Supply Drive for NC Children's Homes this Sunday. Collection bags are available. You may bring your donations to the Welcome Center any time in April. Thank you for providing for His precious children.

Helping Our Refugee Neighbors

CRBC has been placed with an Afghan family with mom and 5 children ranging in age from 2 to 16. The husband/father is trying his best to join them. If you are willing to help this family with your time and presence, contact Danny or Courtnie Estave, and they will arrange a time and introduce you to the family. If you committed to provide an item of need for the family please bring it to church on Sunday. If you are moved to help financially, consider providing a Walmart gift card or a cash donation.

It's Never Too Late to Receive God's Grace

When the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team chaplains were recently deployed to a Boulder, Colorado, neighborhood following very destructive wildfires, a woman approached them to ask if they had any equipment she could use to sift through the ashes of her home. The team quickly sent three volunteers to help her and soon realized she was looking for some of her idols. She was desperate to find them as she depended on them in her daily life. Her husband mentioned that she believed in many deities and reincarnation. The woman felt like she would have peace if only she could find them. The chaplains took this God-ordained opportunity to tell her and her husband about the one and only true source of peace found in Jesus Christ alone. Another volunteer with the same cultural background as the couple, came over to share how learning about and believing in Jesus changed her life. After spending quality time with the volunteers, the couple eagerly prayed to receive Christ as their Lord and Savior. Several other chaplains joined the couple to celebrate their new faith, prayed with them and gave them a new Bible. The desire to sift through the ashes for her idols were no longer a consideration.

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms—Deuteronomy 33:27a

Even though we may not understand why devastating events happen all over the world, we know that our all-knowing and powerful God can and will use any event for His glory and our good. May we continue to pray and give thanks for these men and women who travel to these places, not only to bring tools and medical equipment, but with the life saving message of the One who gives faith in fear, hope in disparity, and love in brokenness. Let us take advantage of our God-ordained opportunities to share the good news of the gospel as part of His Great Commission.
