This Easter Sunday at CRBC

Do not bear false witness against your neighbor. Research has shown that around 91 percent of Americans lie at least one time per week, so we all are acquainted with lying in some form or another. From the 10 commandments, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares how God feels about lying, and how we can overcome it.

Join us for worship this Sunday at 11AM for Thou Shall Tell the Truth (also on YouTube).

Lessons from the Season of Easter

Easter is not a one-time event that happened centuries ago. It's a continuous, ongoing manifestation of the power of life over death, good over evil, and love over hatred. Our entire Christian faith is centered upon the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and we celebrated that this past Sunday. We enjoyed a delicious fellowship breakfast together followed by a worship service composed of meaningful, beautiful music and a real message of hope beyond the grave. What a wonderful opportunity to give glory, honor, and praise to our Father God for the empty tomb. But what are our next steps to be? What should we do with the excitement we have over the good news of Jesus' death and resurrection?

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit — Matthew 28:19

After Jesus died on the cross for the sins of mankind, the Bible tells us that the disciples were still processing what had happened and what the resurrection meant. Most of his disciples had abandoned Jesus in one way or another during his darkest hour as some fell asleep in the Garden of Gethsemane, some ran away when Jesus was taken prisoner, and Peter, among the closest of his disciples, denied even knowing Him three times that very night.

What should we do with the love, excitement, and joy that we have from Easter Sunday? Spring is known to be a time of new beginnings, second changes, and starting over. It's a good time to let go of our baggage, our guilt, and insecurities so that we can become a strong voice for Christ. Let's not hoard Christ. Let's get on with the business at hand: to spread the gospel to a dying world.

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. — 1 Corinthians 15:58

Just like the disciples in the Bible, all disciples of Christ are commissioned to be disciples who make disciples. If we truly believe God's inspired word, let's share the good news that Jesus paid it all and all to Him we owe. Let's rejuvenate ourselves in the Lord and be inspired by the resurrection not just on Easter morning, but each and every morning. Because we are commissioned by Jesus Christ, and go with the power of the Holy Spirit, our labor will not be in vain; it has eternal meaning and value.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. One hundred percent of gifts given to AAEO go to the field to support more than 2,900 missionary families serving across the United States and Canada. Gifts to the AAEO are used to train and resource missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Gifts are also used to create evangelism resources.

New churches are being planted, hurts are being healed, and lives are being transformed by the gospel because you give. Please pray for these missionary families and for the people they will reach. You may give to this offering through the end of April. Make your check to CRBC and note AAEO. If giving online, click <https://www.creedmoorroadbaptist.com/givenow.html>, and select Annie Armstrong Easter Offering as your choice of fund.
