This Sunday at CRBC

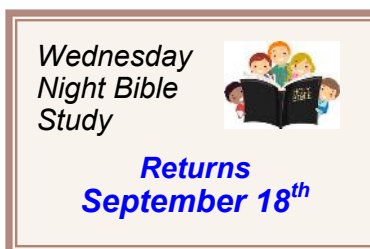

The most undervalued resource to the church today is prayer. Discarded by many, prayer is the vehicle through which the blessings of God are released and the promises of God are enacted. From Daniel 9, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares the keys to an effective prayer life.

Worship with us this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

The Giver of All Things

According to Nielsen ratings and NBC's internal data, released on Monday, the company's coverage of the Paris Olympics attracted an average total audience of over 30.6 million viewers over the 17 day event. By all reports, the 2024 Summer Olympics was an overwhelming success, amassing rave reviews combined with a resurgent interest in the Olympics.

There were many friends, families, and coaches there to encourage and cheer for these Olympians. We also heard the accolades given to parents, spouses, and coaches who supported these athletes as they qualified for this prestigious event. But who is ultimately responsible for those gifts, talents, and perseverance?

For everything comes from Him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to Him forever! Amen — Romans 11:36

As Christians, we too may have possessions, positions, or accomplishments that can give us a sense of prominence, but we should be leery of these, as they can become idols that creep into our lives and capture our hearts. This can cause us to mistakenly worship and praise God's creation rather than the Creator God. So what are we to do with these things?

Last Sunday at Creedmoor Road Baptist Church, 4,033 miles from Paris, our Gospel Project lesson, Worshiping Our Resurrected Lamb, was from Revelation 4 & 5, John's account of a vision of heaven given to him of 24 elders who laid down their own golden crowns before the Throne of God. This symbolic gesture gives evidence that these 24 men are worshiping only God their creator, as only He is worthy of worship, honor, and praise. Our Father God gives us everything, including our skills and abilities, to use for his glory, his purposes, and for our good. So use everything you have been given to worship Him wisely!

Two Notes of Thanks

Dear Church family,
Thank you for your prayers, cards, and calls during the past 2 and 1/2 years as David and I cared for his mother, Helen, and following her recent passing. Knowing we were in your thoughts and prayers meant so much to us and the loving reception you extended to us recently was heartwarming. We love you and look forward to worshipping with you all again soon.

Sincerely,
Neena Fortune

To Our Church Family,
I would like to thank everyone for all the thoughts, prayers, well wishes and help before and after my surgery. It has meant so much to me to have such wonderful people in my life. The good Lord is looking after me in my recovery.

Thank You All,
William and Linda Floyd

Prayer Points

- Thank God that He is always on his throne and He is ruling even when the world seems chaotic.
- Pray for the many who are deceived by Satan, that would have their eyes opened to the truth of the gospel.
- Pray for our church leaders who are planning and budgeting for our new church year at CRBC.
- Thank God for the gifts He has given you, and pray that the Spirit would use them all for his glory, his purposes, and for our good.
