This Sunday at CRBC

Honor your father and your mother. What does honoring your parents mean? To obey them, and that's it, or is there more to it? CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shows the heart behind honoring your parents is much more than we think.

Join us this Sunday as we discuss the 5th commandment this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

National Random Act of Kindness Day - This Saturday, February 17th

According to Wikipedia, the phrase "random acts of kindness" first came from writer Anne Herbert. She scribbled those words down on a placemat in a restaurant in 1982. Anne came up with this phrase to counter the phrase "random acts of violence and senseless acts of cruelty," which was a go-to phrase of the late 1970s due to a rise in violent crime.

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ, God forgave you — Ephesians 4:32

The Random Acts of Kindness Day first began in Denver, Colorado, in 1995 by a small nonprofit organization, the Random Acts of Kindness Foundation. This day is celebrated every year on February 17th with the idea of making this world a little brighter and better through simple, kind gestures, words, or actions at little to no cost. Examples:

- ⇒ Give an unexpected compliment.
- ⇒ Let someone go ahead of you in line.
- ⇒ Slow down so someone can merge in front of you in traffic.
- ⇒ Give someone your seat in a crowded place.
- ⇒ Listen with undivided attention.
- ⇒ Remembering to say thank you.
- ⇒ Volunteer and pay it forward.
- ⇒ Lend a hand to help your neighbor.
- ⇒ Offer help to those struggling with technology.

Quotes:

- ⇒ The Golden Rule: Do to others as you would have them do to you — Matthew 7:12
- ⇒ Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap, but by the seeds that you plant — Robert Louis Stevenson
- ⇒ Kindness is doing what you can, where you are, with what you have — Unknown
- ⇒ Doing good does you good — Unknown

As Christians, every day should be a day full of kindnesses as we live for Christ . For a perfect emblem of Biblical kindness, we need to look no further than to Jesus.
