This Sunday at CRBC

When most people think about the 10 Commandments, they typically see them as a list of rules that restricts their lives and freedoms. But what CRBC Pastor Danny Estave will show in his new sermon series is that the 10 Commandments are not a path to bondage, but a path to freedom, because they reveal to us what our hearts are like.

Worship with us this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Keeping a Biblical Kind of Hope

In the January issue of the Decision Magazine, there is an article that offers the kind of Biblical hope “that is fully confident in our Lord Jesus Christ.” As we begin 2024, let's remember that we serve a sovereign God who rules over every nation, every head of state, and every military power.

These things have I spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world — John 16:33

God is working out his perfect will according to his perfect timing. Only the Lord is worthy of our full hope and trust. In this world, in this coming year, we will face various trials and challenges. It won't be easy. Life never is. But we can have an overarching and abiding joy because of the words of our Lord: 'I have overcome the world (John 16:33b).'”

A Big Success: Socks for Souls

Thanks to your generous donations, there will be many men, women, and children in our area who will have warm feet this winter. You gave 62 pairs of socks for men, 102 pairs of socks for women, and 58 pairs of socks for children for a grand total of 222 pairs of socks. Thanks for remembering those in need.

The Numbers from Sunday

On Sunday, December 24th, there were 49 in worship at 11AM and 37 at 4PM. Giving to CRBC totaled $535. Another $325 was received for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions bringing our total to $1,650. On Sunday, December 31st, there were 34 in worship. The giving totals for last Sunday will be included in next week's newsletter.

Prayer Points

- As we enter into the unknown of the coming year, ask God for guidance and wisdom.
- Ask God to help us to seek first His kingdom and trust that all other things will be added unto us.
- Pray that God will renew our hearts and our minds this year so that we would truly experience Him in a fresh and real way.
- Please pray for the Heinsohn family.

If you have prayer requests for next week's newsletter, please share them with CRBC Pastor Danny Estave or the church office. The contact information is on page 1 of this newsletter.
