This Sunday at CRBC ...

As we continue in our study through the book of Colossians, Paul asks "is Jesus worth the sacrifice?" Paul's answer to this question is a resounding Yes!

Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC or on YouTube as CRBC Pastor Danny Estave poses the question to us: Is Jesus Worth It? (from Colossians 1:24-29).

Hope - Believing He Will Complete What He Has Begun

As the year 2022 begins, most of us have used the word "hope" for resolutions made and prayers prayed. Some believe that hope is slipping away, and that division, disease, and other things of this world are winning. But we must remember that our hope is in something greater than victory. Please read the words of Henri Nouwen:

Hope is not dependent on peace in the land, justice in the world, and success in business. Hope is willing to leave unanswered questions unanswered, and unknown futures unknown. Hope makes you see God's guiding hand not only in the gentle and pleasant moments, but also in the shadows of disappointment and darkness.

Many people feel as though we have hit rock bottom. Perhaps they have misplaced their hope, looking only at the things of this world. When we place our hope in God, we are strengthened and encouraged. Our sovereign God is still tending to His children and His creation. God is in our place, waiting to meet us and lift us up again and again. No matter what comes our way, we have hope because we worship a God who sent His Son, who suffered and died, but came out victorious.

As Christians, we are called to constantly be "on mission." Let's be a part of showing the world, not its troubles, but the hope of eternal life we have in Jesus. In 2022, let's make sure each of us does our part to study the Bible and pray, and to encourage, engage, and invite our friends, neighbors, and strangers to our place of worship, sharing the hope and joy we have found in Him. There is good in this world, and we believe that hope will always win because our Hope is a person, Jesus Christ. We may not know what the future holds, but we do know who holds the future and our eternal home.

These things have I spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world. - John 16:33

COVID-19 Prayer Support

Pray, Asking God, in His Mercy

- To stop this pandemic, and save lives, not only in our community but around the world, particularly in places without health care.
- For wisdom and direction for our governmental leaders.
- For wisdom for us, and for others, to see their great need for God.
- To protect our missionaries and their families around the globe, using this global crisis to advance His Good News to the world.
