This Sunday at CRBC and on Facebook Live...

CRBC continues Morning Worship in the Sanctuary and on Facebook Live.

Last week, Pastor Danny began his series, Titus: Godly Living in Light of God's Grace. He shared that the grace of God is what produces godliness, not our religion. This Sunday, we will look to Paul as he shares what godliness looks like as it is lived out, and our proper response to sound doctrine (Titus 2:1-10).

Worship with us this Sunday at 11AM.

If You Attend CRBC in Person This Sunday

The decision to attend CRBC worship services in person or online is yours alone, and the factors to consider are different for each person. Regardless of what you decide, your decision will be respected.

At CRBC, we will comply with CDC guidelines for social distancing. Please enter through the Welcome Center entrance wearing a mask. If you do not have a mask, one will be provided for you inside the Welcome Center. For your safety and the safety of others, follow the signs posted, and maintain a social distance of 6 feet at all times.

Annie Walker Armstrong - Someone Good To Emulate

Even though we were not "in place" for our annual Easter offering for North American missionaries, the need is still there and still growing. However, some members did give around the Easter season and thank you for your remembrances. To date, CRBC has collected $590.

Our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering highlights the life of Annie Walker Armstrong, who was born on July 11, 1850, and became a champion for missions. Whether she was doing hands-on work in her home city of Baltimore or traveling to the mission field throughout the southeast and west to see firsthand the work that needed to be accomplished, Annie was always networking for the gospel. She was passionate about making connections with missionaries and pastors, observing their needs and rallying Southern Baptists to meet them.

Annie Armstrong would have never dreamed she would be on a very popular social networking site called Facebook (you may have heard of it) with 23,113 Likes as of today. Like Annie Armstrong's Facebook page to discover more about her life and connect you with Southern Baptist Missionaries, pastors, staff, and laypeople who are passionate about impacting their world for Christ just like Annie. You will also be able to get updates about North American missionaries and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering.

Our AAEO emphasis will begin this Sunday, June 14th and run through Sunday, June 28th. There will not be an ingathering for this offering. If donating by check, please indicate AAEO on the memo line. Our church goal is $2,000. Thank you for your part in spreading the good news of the saving grace of the gospel!

Gospel Project on Zoom Now Sundays at 7PM

To accommodate worship back at CRBC, the Gospel Project Adult Bible Study on Zoom has moved to 7pm each Sunday night. New GP books are in the Welcome Center, and can be delivered. If you would to join us, contact David Yarborough.

Update - There were 23 souls at CRBC for worship last Sunday, and many others online. Last week's deposits totaled $5,040. Thank you CRBC!

COVID-19 Prayer Support Page

Pray, Asking God, in His Mercy

To stop this pandemic, and save lives, not only in our community but around the world, particularly in places without health care.

For wisdom and direction for our governmental leaders.

For wisdom for us, and for others, to see their great need for God.

To protect our missionaries and their families around the globe, using this global crisis to advance His Good News to the world.
