This Sunday at CRBC ...

The life of Solomon can be viewed as a tragedy. He was a wise king, doing so well, and then he ruined it all through unwise decisions he made. This Sunday, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave will discuss ways that we can ruin our relationship with God, and in the process, our lives.

This Sunday at 11am

Join us at 11AM this Sunday at CRBC (also on YouTube).

The Blessings of Sundays

Do we every take for granted that when we arrive at CRBC for Bible study or worship that the church's welcome and directional signs are in place, the doors are unlocked, and the lights are on? That music will be played, songs will be sung, and the words to those songs will be on the screen for us to sing? Or that God's holy word will be shared with both adults and children, or even if we can't make it to CRBC in person that we can somehow view the service at home? Do we truly appreciate the servants that make happen for us each Sunday?

Sunday mornings at CRBC just don't happen with the twitch of a nose or the blink of an eye. Our Sabbath days are intentional and taken seriously; it's a holy day that is "set apart" for God's purposes; it's a day to worship our risen King Jesus with other believers, to pray and give thanks, to align our hearts with His, and to take part in the Great Commission. This day happens because Jesus came down, and glory filled our souls for service in His name. Sundays happen because God created the church to equip the saints for the work of His ministry.

Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms.—1 Peter 4:10

This Sunday, as we come together and enjoy our freedom to worship, take a moment to remember the ones in our midst who have given of their gifts, talents, and time in order to provide a meaningful, worshipful environment each Sunday, and give thanks to our Father God for His church, that is opened wide each and every Sunday to receive people of all races, creeds, and colors in order that we all may worship the one true God in the Spirit and in truth.

The Numbers from Last Sunday
