This Sunday at CRBC...

This Sunday is Mother's Day, and CRBC Pastor Danny Estave looks to Sarah to remind us that a lasting legacy isn't built on perfection or appearances, but on trusting God and living out that faith in the ordinary moments. As we honor the mothers in our lives, may we also be intentional about leaving an eternal legacy... one rooted in Christ that will impact generations to come.

Join us this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Happy Mother's Day

In 1914, Mother's Day became an official holiday. President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed this day to be a national holiday to be celebrated every year on the second Sunday of May. This special day is an opportunity to come together as a family to show our love, appreciation, and hopefully a day off from cooking lunch, dinner, and doing the dishes. Fellas, that is truly what most mothers want!

She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also and he praises her — Proverbs 31:25,28

Mothers are special to God because they mirror his divine nature through sacrificial love, compassion, and grace. According to the Bible, God views mothers as deserving of high honor, respect, and love, and commands children to honor them (Exodus 20:12). Scripture portrays mothers as nurturers and teachers who provide wisdom and kindness. May we remember to celebrate our mothers this coming Sunday, honoring those who are present with the Lord and those who are living among us.

Heavenly Father, thank you for the beautiful gift of mothers and may we always show our love to our mothers, never taking them for granted!

Why God Didn't Stop at Adam

God formed man from dust and breath,
a living soul, yet still incomplete,
for even in a garden of perfection,
there was a silence not meant to keep.

He saw the strength, the work, the purpose,
yet knew the story needed more,
a heart to nurture, hands to comfort,
a deeper kind of love at its core.

So He created woman with intention,
not as an afterthought, but divine design,
a vessel of grace, a well of compassion,
a quiet strength both gentle and kind.

And within her, He placed a calling,
the sacred gift of becoming "mom,"
to love without limit, to give without question,
to hold a family steady and strong.

For through a mother's hands and prayers,
God's love is seen, alive, and warm —
That's why He didn't stop at Adam —
He created a heart that could Mother the world.
