This Sunday at CRBC

Do you need to go to church, or has it become outdated or irrelevant for you? CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares one of Paul's letters to the people that the gospel creates — the church, and why you should be committed to church and striving for unity there.

Worship with us this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Sunday School - The Teaching Arm of the Church

You may be interested in knowing that the first recorded Protestant Sunday school opened in 1751 in St. Mary's Church, Nottingham, England. Generous Christians wanted to provide an education to poor children who were working in factories during the week. The school met on Sunday; thus the name. Parents were very pleased for their children to learn to read and write from the Bible, which was their textbook.

In 1891, the Southern Baptist Convention established the Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee. The main purpose of this type of Sunday School was to teach boys & girls about the gospel.

Yes, Jesus loves me, for the Bible tells me so —Anna Warner

Today, Sunday School is a place where people of all ages can come together to learn about our one true God while still using the Bible as our textbook. It can also be a time to get to know our fellow Christians more personally, and share our burdens, joys, and concerns together.

At CRBC, there are many other benefits of faithfully attending Sunday School. Sunday School is a place where:

- ⇒ We unite together to share our belief in the power and presence of God.
- ⇒ It deepens our faith and helps us sense the need for prayers for one another.
- ⇒ It gives us another opportunity to learn God's Word on multiple levels of thinking, feeling, and doing while helping us grow in understanding of God's plan & purpose for our lives.
- ⇒ It improves our Bible knowledge and deepens our desire to obey and follow the Lord.
- ⇒ It helps develop our character: to show love, kindness, honesty, and respect in making moral and ethical decisions.
- ⇒ It's a place where we can strive to get our spiritual life together, learning to depend on Him more and less on ourselves.

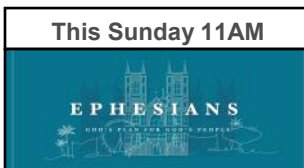

Especially today, Sunday School remains relevant and is vital for spiritual growth, community building, and the growth of the church. It's one of the most important ministries to promote the spread the gospel while loving God and living Jesus. Hope you can join us this Sunday for Sunday School at 10am! You'll be glad you did!

Reach Raleigh: Coming in July, Prayer Begins Now

CRBC's annual outreach emphasis week, Reach Raleigh, will take place from July 14-21. Please mark your calendars for the week so that you can participate with your church in reaching our city for Christ. Pray for CRBC, Pastor Danny, and all who are helping to organize this event, and pray for God to soften the hearts and the people of Raleigh that they may hear and receive the gospel message.
