This Sunday at CRBC ...

Pastor Danny is on vacation, but we are so happy to have CRBC's own Rev. Michael Carter back in the pulpit this Sunday. Mike will share How Should We Then Live? from Romans 12:1-2.

Join us at 11AM this Sunday at CRBC or on YouTube.

Try Gospel Project This Summer

Sin has broken our relationship with our holy God. However, grace and mercy bridge this gap. In 1 Samuel to 1 Kings, King Saul, King David, and King Solomon experienced both the division sin brings and the unity forgiveness offers. You will see that though we could never earn it, God, in His grace and mercy, freely offers redemption and renewal.

If you are not already involved in the Gospel Project Bible study, why not give it a try this summer. Free discipleship guides available in the Welcome Center that cover June, July, and August. There are classes for both adults and children each Sunday morning at 10AM.

The Urgency of Sharing the Gospel

Most of us are very faithful in supporting our missional projects such as the Food & Supply Drive for Baptist Children's Homes and other Christian efforts to show our love and support for refugees, missionaries, and others with basic needs. While these projects are certainly needed, appreciated, and follow God's calling, there is another opportunity to serve and be a part of a life-changing and life-saving event.

In a recent post, the pastor of Faith Baptist Church in California explained to his congregation regarding the urgency of sharing the gospel:

In this life, everyone exists for a reason. No one exists just to occupy space and breathe air; everyone has a God-given purpose in life. We wake up every morning and push ourselves harder to get one step closer to those dreams. We work hard to attain our goals. We work hard to make our dreams into a reality. However, I would like to remind you of this truth: nothing in this world will last forever. Nothing in this world is permanent. All that we work for will soon be gone; that is the reality of life. Therefore, as Christians, we need to work hard for things that have eternal value; we need to work hard for the Lord and His Kingdom. Everything we do for God will make a lasting impact for eternity. The question is, when are we going to start working hard for God? NOW is the time to begin! We often delay sharing of the gospel especially to our family and love ones because we have a perception that we will always have another chance; but, we have no guarantee of tomorrow. When our life in this world is over, our service to God and our chance to share the gospel will also be over. Therefore, let's share the gospel today - not tomorrow, not next week, next month or next year - but today. Let's get involved with things that have eternal value. Our labor will not be in vain if it has eternal value.

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanished away. — James 4:14

How true and thought-provoking this message is, not only to his congregation, but to ours as well. May we be challenged to have urgency to be on mission each and every day to share the love, faith, and hope we have in our gift of eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.
