This Sunday at CRBC

If you could write a job description for the Christian life, what would it say? From Ephesians 4, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares how Christians are to live, relate to one another, and grow as the body of Christ.

Worship with us this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Living the Mission

Would you believe that this past Sunday we had ten missionaries in our midst for Sunday School? What a joyous feeling it was to be among such Bible believing, God-fearing, fully faithful, and deeply dedicated servants who are part of the family of God and members of Creedmoor Road Baptist Church.

You may wonder why they were mentioned as being missionaries. Have they been commissioned to leave town and to go tell others the gospel of Jesus? No, they have not. Then, why are they referred to as missionaries?

As Christians, we are all called to serve Jesus Christ. The word missionary just means someone who is sent; we're all drawn into Christ; we're all sent by Christ to live in this world as witnesses for Him. In that sense, wherever God places us, He sends us armed with the gospel message. He sends us into the world to serve Him, love others, and bear witness to Him.

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me — Philippians 4:13

In our Gospel Project Sunday school lesson last Sunday, we read the following:

Every people group in every part of the world needs to hear this message. It is the world's one hope, and God is calling us to share it. For some of us, that means we must leave our homes and go to the unreached. For others, it means we stay where we are and serve as we can. But, we are all missionaries. The only difference is the place.

Christians, perhaps we don't think we are bold enough, don't know enough, or will simply be rejected, but know this: Our powerful God has already lovingly given us all the talents, gifts, and abilities we need to share the hope we have in Jesus with others. We can share the lifesaving message of the gospel with those who have not had the pleasure of getting to know Jesus. Today is a good day to start, right now, right where you are!
