This Sunday at CRBC ...

At some point in your life, you've had to answer the question of what you'd wish for if a genie in a lamp appeared and offered you 3 wishes. And you know the rules: you can't wish for more wishes or to make someone fall in love with you. What would you ask for if God told you that you could ask him for one thing, anything?

This Sunday, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave begins his 4-week series, The Rise and Fall of King Solomon, with King Solomon's response to this question. Join us at 11AM this Sunday at CRBC or on YouTube.

Daniel Ritchie Coming to CRBC Sunday June 5th

Daniel Ritchie is coming to CRBC with a message of hope on Sunday, June 5th (in 10 days) at 11AM. Daniel was born without arms, but God is glorified in his difference and has given him a thriving life. Daniel speaks to more than 200,000 people every year – sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ as well as what he has learned being born visibly different. God has shaped his perspective to pursue a full life, because Daniel is defined by God and His grace rather than by the sum of two empty sleeves or by the eyes of the critical world.

Invite friends and family that may need some encouragement. Love offerings for Daniel and his ministry will be accepted at the service.

All Gave Some, Some Gave All

As we celebrate Memorial Day this Monday, May 30th, Americans come together to remember those men & women who gave their own life in defense of our great country. It's also a time to give homage to those who served and survived war. Give a kind word of appreciation to all those who protect & serve this nation. As Christians, we should strive to live in a spirit of thankfulness.

*From the mountains to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam.
God bless America, My home sweet home.
God bless America, My home sweet home. (Irving Berlin)*

While it is important to celebrate by waving our flags of red, white, and blue, attend parades, and keep alive special moments in our history, we should never wait for a special day, event, place, or time to reflect and prayerfully say, "thank you" to the One who gave us Jesus, to the One who gave it all, who sacrificially suffered and painfully died on the old rugged cross, to the One who offered each of us forgiveness, freedom, faith, hope, His presence, protection, provisions, and most importantly, a new, eternal life in Him. God has truly blessed us and our country in such a mighty way; may we pause and reflect on what we have and who we are in Him.

*Jesus paid it all, All to Him I owe.
Sin had left a crimson stain, He washed it white as snow. (Elvina M. Hall)*

Try Gospel Project This Summer

Sin has broken our relationship with our holy God. However, grace and mercy bridge this gap. In 1 Samuel to 1 Kings, King Saul, King David, and King Solomon experienced both the division sin brings and the unity forgiveness offers. You will see that though we could never earn it, God, in His grace and mercy, freely offers redemption and renewal.

If you are not already involved in the Gospel Project Bible study, why not give it a try this summer. Free discipleship guides available in the Welcome Center that cover June, July, and August. There are classes for both adults and children, each Sunday morning at 10AM.

The Numbers from Sunday

Sunday, there were 26 in worship. Giving to the General Fund totaled $1,320. Thank you.
