This Sunday at CRBC and on Facebook Live...

Our consumer society is constantly telling us that life at its best consists of having more and more possessions and pleasure.

As Christians, we know that this is patently false. But the tug is so strong that many of us try to balance what the Bible teaches with what advertising says, between the spiritual riches God offers us in Christ and worldly treasures that cannot feed our soul. Sadly some of us lose our balance, and the results are devastating.

Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC or on Facebook as Pastor Danny continues our study of The Sermon on the Mount with Lasting Treasure.

Planning for Poinsettias

As you may remember, we are planning to decorate our sanctuary with those beautiful red poinsettia plants as part of Christmas celebration.

If you are staying safer-at-home during this pandemic, please mail to CRBC your list of names "in honor" and/or "in memory" along with your check ($9.00 per plant, payable to CRBC) in time for it to be received no later than Sunday, October 25th.

Those attending worship in person will find our regular poinsettia forms available on the pews this Sunday. All information concerning ordering poinsettias is due no later than Sunday, October 25th. If you have any questions, please contact Pat Danieley.

Focus on Our Faith

As we are still battling the war against the virus, its paramount that we, as Christians, live out our faith by recalling scriptures like the ones from a recent Gospel Project lesson concerning the greatest commandments. We should show and share our everlasting love for God with our entire being (heart, soul, mind, and strength) and to love our neighbor. Keeping our eyes focused completely on Him and showing our love and care for others will enable us to weather this storm with comfort, courage, and calmness.

Decorating Updates

Many of you expressed an interest in helping with decorating CRBC for the upcoming Christmas holidays. As the time approaches, we will have a list of decorating teams and a captain for each team. Please be thinking of the place where you would like to serve in this way. More info will follow.

The Numbers from Sunday

There were 22 in the sanctuary last Sunday and more online. Deposits totaled $1,540. Thank you for your support of CRBC!
