This Sunday at CRBC

When you came to faith, how did you come to believe? In the Bible, without exception, every person who believed did so because someone else told them about the gospel. From Romans 10:14-17, CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares that the gospel must be spoken and believers are the ones sent to bring that message. Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC (also on YouTube).

The Bible - Our Playbook for Life

If you are an avid football fan, this recent article from the Decision Magazine will certainly attract your attention. There is also a good chance you are familiar with the names of NFL Hall of Fame Coach Tony Dungy and three time Emmy award-winning network television broadcaster, James Brown. Let's take a quick look at both of these godly men:

Seventy-two year-old James "JB" Brown is the host of The NFL Today on CBS and is a special correspondent for the network's news division. Inducted into the Sports Broadcasting Hall of Fame in 2021, Brown will host CBS Sports' coverage of Super Bowl LVIII in Allegiant Stadium on February 11, 2024 in Paradise, Nevada. JB is also an ordained minister, serving as an on-staff minister at his church. He strongly believes the God we serve is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

Sixty-seven year-old Tony Dungy played defensive back for the 1979 Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2007, with the Indianapolis Colts, he became the first African American head coach to win a Super Bowl. Currently, Dungy is an NFL analyst and commentator for NBC Sunday Night Football as well as a #1 New York Times bestselling author whose books include Quiet Strength, Uncommon, The Mentor Leader, and Uncommon Marriage. Some of Dungy's most profound words were said earlier this year when he said that he would not be silenced by the vitriolic criticism aimed at him for speaking at the annual March for Life rally in Washington D.C.

For the last 13 years, these two men, along with several dozen others, have committed to partner in a weekly Bible study that, due to their schedules, often require phone/video calls. In April, they co-anchored a men's retreat at the Billy Graham Training Center at the Cove in nearby Asheville, NC. More than 400 men attended and as a result, more than a dozen attendees gave their lives to Christ!

Both these men recognize that God has given them a platform on the media's biggest stage for His glory, not their own. May our heavenly Father continue to lead, guide, and direct men of faith, who use the Bible, God's inerrant, infallible word, as their playbook for life.

Trunk-or-Treat Returns

CRBC is hosting a Trunk-or-Treat on October 31st from 6-8PM. Volunteer by decorating the trunk of your vehicle, maybe wearing a costume, and supplying candy for our visitors. For decorating ideas simply Google "trunk-or-treat decorations." Like last year, we need at least 10 cars for our Trunk-or-Treat. Please sign up in the Welcome Center or let Pastor Danny know if you would like to participate. If you do not plan to be there, please consider providing individually wrapped candy for this event. There will be a drop-off box in the Welcome Center.

The Numbers from Sunday

Last Sunday, there were 32 in worship. Giving to CRBC totaled $2,085. The prior Sunday, September 3rd, there were 37 in worship, and giving totaled $7,045.

NEHEMIAH
Begins Tonight 6:30

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works
and glorify your Father in heaven
— Matthew 5:16

Prayer Requests

- Praise God for being righteous. Praise Him for being the rock of our salvation.
- Ask God to remove any stumbling blocks from your friends and neighbors, so that they would believe the gospel along with you.
- Pray that your friends and neighbors would not be ignorant of the gospel or zealously chase after things that cannot satisfy their souls.

If you have prayer requests to be added to next week's prayer list, please share them with CRBC Pastor Danny Estave or the church office. The contact information is on page 1 of this newsletter.
